

(B.A/B.Sc. Part-II) English Literature

Attempt FIVE Questions in all. Section-A is Compulsory. Select TWO questions from Section-B and TWO from Section-C. All questions carry equal marks.

SECTION-A

1- Explain with reference to the context any FOUR of the following:

5x4=20

- i) "When I consider how my light is spent,
 Ere half my days in this dark world and wide,"
- ii) Say near me, do not take the flight!
 A little longer stay in sight
- iii) "Season of mists and mellow fruitfulness,
 Close bosom-friend of the maturing sun
- iv) Something sinister in the tone,
 Told me my secret must be known;
- v) It will have blood, they say : blood will have blood
- vi) What do you see? A world full of common people!
 All of 'em born all of 'em going to die!

SECTION-B

2- Robert Frost claims superiority of man over nature; mind over matter in the poem "Tree at My Window".
 Elaborate. 20

3- Critically evaluate the poem, "The Road Not Taken" by Robert Frost. 20

4- Critically evaluate John Milton's poem "On His Blindness". 20

5- Write a note on Love of Adam for Eve as shown by John Milton in Paradise Lost book ninth lines 986 to 916. 20

SECTION-C

6- William Wordsworth's attitude towards nature and man shows his faith in goodness and tenderness. Discuss. 20

7- Describe the murder scene of King Duncan in the play "Macbeth". 20

8- The play "Macbeth" shows the eternal conflict between good and evil. Discuss. 20

9- Draw a character sketch of Tom Wing Field in the play Glass Menagerie by Tennessee Williams. 20

10- Can we regard Amanda as a typical American mother? Discuss. 20

B.A/B.Sc-II (18/A)(O) – xxx ***